Additional Information Required (attach with this cover sheet):

1. Prepare a résumé that lists your name, contact information, areas of participation in the fair, and areas of service to the fair. (For example, list the shows and activities you entered in one section and the things you did to help the fair in another section.) List everything you can think of as this information will help the committee choose a winner.
2. Write an essay (100-500 words) about your Madison County Fair memories and what they have meant to you. Sign the final document.
3. Write a paragraph that explains how you plan to finance your education and what you have done thus far. Include funds saved, jobs worked, scholarships applied for, etc. Feel free to share additional information about your financial situation. All information will be kept CONFIDENTIAL.

Someone from the fair scholarship committee will contact you to set up an interview time. The interview will not be difficult, but will allow the committee a chance to know you better and learn more about your participation in the fair, extracurricular activities, and future career goals.

Remember, this application must be received in office by NOON July 7, 2023, to the
